HONOLULU – Maruo Sykap, 21, was indicted by the O‘ahu grand jury today and charged with one count of Robbery in the First Degree. The indictment alleges that on April 22, 2021, Sykap robbed a man of his valuables while armed with a dangerous instrument. Due to the seriousness of the alleged offense, the court ordered Sykap held without bail pending trial. Sykap remains at large.

Based on the serious nature of the offense involving a dangerous instrument, the need to deter future criminal conduct, and to protect the public from further crimes, the Department of the Prosecuting Attorney will be seeking a prison sentence for Sykap if he is convicted.

Sykap is presumed innocent until proven guilty.
