HONOLULU – Kevin B. Manners, 41, was indicted by the O‘ahu grand jury today and charged with one count of Murder in the Second Degree. Bail was set in the amount of $1,000,000.

Manners is accused of murdering his wife, 39-year-old Arlene Manners, at their home in Waianae on June 30, 2021. If convicted, Manners faces a mandatory sentence of life in prison with the possibility of parole.

Prosecuting Attorney Steve Alm said of the indictment, “This case is a tragic reminder that domestic violence touches the lives of so many in our community.” “If you do not feel safe in a domestic situation, reach out to family and friends for support and visit the Hawai‘i State Coalition Against Domestic Violence at <http://www.hscadv.org> or call the Domestic Violence Action Center at (808) 531-3771 to get help,” he continued. “And always call 911 in an emergency,” he said.

The case is being prosecuted by Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Erika Candelario, a member of the Department’s Family Prosecution Division. Manners is presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty.
