HONOLULU – Today an O‘ahu jury found Kilani Derego, 28, guilty of Manslaughter relating to the 2010 killing of Charlys Tang in Waipahu. Derego faces a sentence of up to 20 years in prison. The court set bail in the amount of $250,000 pending Derego’s sentencing.

“The Department is pleased with the verdict and we hope that it brings some measure of closure to Mr. Tang’s family,” said Prosecuting Attorney Steve Alm. “We thank the jury for its service and are appreciative of HPD’s hard work in investigating this case,” he continued. “Because of the seriousness of Derego’s offense, the need to deter future criminal conduct, and to protect the public, we will be seeking the maximum prison term,” he said.

Derego’s sentencing is set for October 5, 2021.
